COMPETITION ACT [CHAPTER 14:28]

Notice of Commencement of Investigation into the Alleged Restrictive Practices in the Health Sector by Cimas Medical Aid Society

It is hereby notified, in terms of section 28 of the Competition Act [Chapter 14:28], that the Competition and Tariff Commission has commenced an investigation into alleged restrictive practices by Cimas Medical Aid Society. Section 28 of the Act empowers the Commission to undertake investigations into any restrictive practice, as defined in terms of section 2 of the Act, which the Commission has reason to believe exists or may come into existence.

It is alleged that Cimas Medical Aid Society declined to register Belnash Investments trading as Harvey Brown Pharmacy as a healthcare service provider on its direct payment system. This alleged conduct is said to have occurred notwithstanding the registration of other similarly placed service providers on the same system. It is also alleged that the non-registration on the direct payment system resulted in Cimas Medical Aid Society's members being forced to pay cash for services rendered at Harvey Brown. It is further alleged that Cimas Medical Aid Society provides healthcare services and operates a pharmacy within close proximity to Harvey Brown Pharmacy. Cimas Medical Aid Society is alleged to be indirectly referring its members to its own pharmacy.

The Commission has preliminary concerns that the alleged practice may result in members' choice of healthcare service providers being limited to Cimas Medical Aid Society's pharmacy and other healthcare providers preferred by Cimas, where their medical aid cards are accepted. The practice may also create barriers to entry and expansion of Harvey Brown Pharmacy and other healthcare providers in a similar predicament, who may not compete fairly with healthcare providers that are on Cimas Medical Aid Society direct payment facility. The alleged practice may prima facie constitute a restrictive practice as defined in terms of section 2 of the Act.

It should be noted that the commencement of an investigation neither presupposes that the conduct being investigated is anti-competitive nor that Cimas Medical Aid Society has violated the provisions of the Act. The Commission will, as provided in section 28 of the Act, conduct an investigation to establish whether the alleged practices directly or indirectly restrict competition.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission hereby gives notice to all interested stakeholders and the general public to submit their written representations to the Commission stating how they may have been affected by the issues under investigation, not later than fourteen (14) days from the date of publication of this Notice. Emails may be sent to director@competition.co.zw and or enquiries@competition.co.zw or hard copies submitted to:

The Director;
23, Broadlands Road,
Emerald Hill, Harare.

Any further enquiries or clarification on any aspect of the Commission's investigation you may contact Ms. R. Chirombo, on Tel. (+263) 772 698 867, (+263) 773 385 035, (+263) 853127-32 or email: rchirombo@competition.co.zw

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Conditions of Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

- (a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and
- (b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of copy published by Printflow (Private) Limited; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangements, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained, elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator, must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards—not, for instance 7, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

- (a) exceed 10 pages of double-spaced typing on size A4 paper; or
- (b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting; it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

- (a) the work involved is of a straight forward and non-tabular nature; and
- (b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

- (a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week;
- (b) may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear. If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

- (a) the name and address of the advertiser; and
- (b) the debtor's code number, if any; and

10. If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Submission of Copy for Government Gazette Statutory Instruments and Notices

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that it is necessary to draw attention to the "Conditions for Acceptance of Copy", which appears in every issue of the Gazette; and particularly the need to submit lengthy copy, in the case of Statutory Instruments, at least 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which the notice is to be published.

During the past few months or so there have been many cases where urgent copy for subsidiary legislation, which requires the signature of the President or a minister to give it effect, and which is of national importance, has been sent in for publication in the Gazette after closing-time. Whilst I acknowledge that it is the duty of Printflow (Private) Limited to give certain notices special treatment, I am, however, of the view that a Gazette Extraordinary has tended to be a must rather than a matter of priority in respect of unwarranted delays of urgent copy.

While every effort will continue to be made to publish Extraordinaries on the required dates, copy must be submitted timeously so that it can be programmed into the printing-work-flow as soon as it is available.

G. MAUPA,
Gazette Editor.
